

10th February 2023

Dear Parents

World Book Day 2022 – Thursday 2nd March 2023

We have exciting news! World Book Day this year falls on Thursday 2nd March 2023 – the second week back after half term – and we are really looking forward to celebrating it with the children.

This year, we would like everyone to dress up as a word. For example, if you chose the word 'odd', you could come in odd socks and odd items of clothes.

This is, of course, optional but we would like to inject a bit of fun into the day.

We hope that we can spread a little joy and pleasure in reading, and we look forward to seeing all of your efforts. Should you have any questions, please don't hesitate to get in touch.

Yours sincerely

Mrs Brydon
