Headteacher's Message

Dear Parents and Carers

What a week full of sunshine!

Thank you for ensuring your child has come into school with sunscreen applied, full water bottles and a sun hat!

PTA Hero Shopping Day

A huge thank you for supporting this event. It was wonderful to see the children carefully selecting a gift to give their hero. Thank you also to Katie, Chair of the PTA, for organising and giving of her time to provide this wonderful opportunity for children.

Year 5 – Samba Workshop

On Tuesday of this week, all Year 5 pupils took part in a samba workshop as part of their learning in music. This was a wonderful opportunity for children because they were given the chance to play a range of different instruments including the timba, ganza, go go bells and ripeneeka. The children certainly enjoyed the rhythm and sound of the samba!

History of Art Day

Recently, the whole school took part in our annual History of Art Day. During the day the children learnt about a specific artist, created a fact file and then produced a piece of artwork in that style. Amongst the artists studied were Frieda Kahlo, Monet, Picasso, Georgia O'Keeffe and Egyptian art. Once again, the children's artwork was beautiful and they should be very proud of their masterpieces. Thank you to Mrs Chessel for leading this.
